Jose,

Mike Russell, the Wilshire Center BID Director, asked me if we could waive a 10% late fee for a stakeholder that says he never received the initial invoice but did receive the late notice.

I checked the BID database and did not see returned mail for this account (see attached).

I'm just asking for information right now, the stakeholder is supposed to be sending something to Mike but hasn't done so yet.

Just want to know if this is possible or what's the criteria for waiving a late fee.

Thanks.
